Graduates of the B.A. Political Science program (2013 pattern) should be able to:

1. Grasp Core Political Concepts
Understand fundamental political ideas—such as ideology, governance, state, democracy—and historical development of political systems.
2. Analyze Political Thought and Theory
Critically examine Western and Indian political theory, ideologies (like Marxism, Gandhism, Feminism), and their relevance today.
3. Understand Governance and Administration
Comprehend public administration principles, approaches (traditional, behavioral, systems), bureaucracy, budgeting, and governance reforms.
4. Evaluate International Relations
Identify key actors, theories, and issues in international politics and their implications for global governance.
5. Develop Analytical and Research Skills
Apply qualitative/quantitative research methods to analyze political phenomena at national and global levels.
6. Engage Ethically and Civically
Demonstrate awareness of rights, duties, democratic values, social justice, and participate responsibly in civic life.
7. Communicate Effectively
Articulate political ideas clearly through written and verbal modes—essays, presentations, discussions.
8. Prepare for Future Endeavors
Be ready for civic service, higher studies, policy roles, journalism, administration, and public affairs.
