Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs)
2024 (NEP) Pattern

PSOs – B.A. Political Science (NEP 2024 Pattern)

PSO 1: Core Political Concepts & Theories

Graduate students will critically understand foundational political science concepts—state, power, sovereignty, democracy, rights, justice—and their theoretical frameworks, including diverse ideological perspectives.

PSO 2: Interdisciplinary & Contextual Analysis

Students will integrate political, historical, economic, cultural, and environmental dimensions in their understanding of political phenomena, fostering a well-rounded, contextual analysis.

PSO 3: Research & Methodology

Learners will master qualitative and quantitative research methods—survey design, case studies, data analysis, policy evaluation—applied through experiential tasks like field visits, internships, simulations, and project work.

PSO 4: Institutional & Policy Insight

Students will deepen their knowledge of political institutions (government, judiciary, civil services), policy processes, electoral systems, and governance mechanisms at local, national, and global levels.

PSO 5: Communication & Practical Skills

Graduates will articulate political ideas effectively using written, oral, and digital modes—enhancing skills such as debate, report writing, presentations, and ICT in political analysis.

PSO 6: Responsible Citizenship & Ethics

Students will develop ethical awareness and civic values (equality, inclusivity, human rights) and engage meaningfully in democratic and community initiatives.

PSO 7: Analytical & Critical Thinking

Graduates will analyze political issues—conflicts, development, globalization—with critical reasoning, comparative frameworks, and problem-solving competencies.

PSO 8: Career Readiness & Lifelong Learning

Students will be equipped for diverse career paths (civil services, policy, journalism, research, academia), with adaptability and foundational skills for lifelong growth and advanced studies.
